The board of education may hold a closed session by the affirmative vote of a majority of its voting members if the members consider the closed session clearly necessary for the protection of the public interest or for the prevention of needless injury to the reputation of an individual. Closed sessions may be held for, but shall not be limited to, such reasons as:

- a. Discussion of negotiations, real estate purchases, or litigation;
- b. Discussion regarding deployment of security personnel or devices;
- c. Investigative proceedings regarding allegations of criminal misconduct;

The vote to hold a closed session shall be taken in open session. The vote of each member on the question of holding a closed session, the reason for the closed session, the time when the closed session commenced and concluded shall be recorded in the minutes. No formal action may be taken during the closed session.

Any member of the board of education shall have the right to challenge the continuation of a closed session if the member feels that the session has exceeded the reasons stated in the original motion to hold the session. Such a challenge shall be overruled only by a majority vote of the members of the board of education. Such challenges and its disposition shall be recorded in the minutes.
